DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Specifically, JP 63-242257 and JP 8-19784, which are mentioned on page 2 of the specification, but have not been listed on the IDS, nor copies thereof supplied, have not been considered by the Examiner.

Specification

2. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the abstract should be a single paragraph of between 50 and 150 words. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Art Unit: 1724

Claim 5, as currently recited, contains multiple errors, which render the claim vague and indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Carlson '441 (Fig. 2; page 1, col. 1, lines 56-60; page 1, col. 2, lines 1-10, 30-38).

Applicant should note that Fig. 2 of the reference appears to depict 36 elements (16) within the static mixer.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

9. Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carlson '441 taken together with Nakagawa.

Carlson '441 (Fig. 2; page 1, col. 1, lines 56-60; page 1, col. 2, lines 1-10, 30-38) as applied above substantially discloses applicant's invention as recited by instant claims 2 and 3, except for the plural pump means and the separator downstream of the static mixer means.

Nakagawa (Fig. 1; col. 4, line 63 through col. 5, line 36; col. 6, lines 6-17) discloses a gas-liquid contacting apparatus similar to that of Carlson '441, wherein there is provided liquid pump means upstream of the static mixer for circulating liquid from a vessel through the mixer and back into the vessel, and a separator (4) downstream of the static mixer for removing excess undissolved gas from the mixture exiting the static mixer. Wherein it is commonplace to use a pump to charge a liquid to a gas-liquid mixer and to place a separator downstream of the mixer to remove excess gas from the mixture, which can then be recycled through the process, it would have been obvious for an artisan at the time of the invention, to provide the static mixer of Carlson '441 with a liquid pump upstream and a separator downstream, in view of Nakagawa, since such would economically perform the process. Furthermore, wherein it is evidence of obviousness to utilize plural elements, such as the pump of Nakagawa, to provide a multiplied effect, it would have been obvious for an artisan at the time of the invention, to provide multiple pumps upstream of the static mixer of Carlson '441, thereby providing a multiplied pumping effect in an obvious manner.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. Claims 6 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
